

London, August 2

My Dear

May 10th, 1914

Professor G. A. Barton,

Bryn Mawr.

Dear Professor Barton:

Would it be possible for you to come to Toronto next winter and deliver a sermon in Convocation Hall to our students? The sermons are arranged by a committee of the Colleges of the University, and we have been able in the past to secure a large number of the best preachers of the United States. It will be a great pleasure to us if you are able to come next winter. The latter parts of February and March are still open. Perhaps you could suggest a day that would be suitable.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Professor G. A. Barton,

Bryn Mawr, Pa.

Dear Professor Barton:

I am glad to know that you will be able to come and preach in Convocation Hall next winter. March 28th is still unoccupied, and if you will take that as a fixture it will suit us very well.

The nonorarium that we offer for the service of the morning is fifty dollars, and we provide entertainment for the visiting preacher.

We shall look forward with much pleasure to your visit.

Yours sincerely,

President.
